

Microsoft wants you to make a difference

As a Microsoft employee, you have knowledge of the digital industry that people at the start of their career are ready and waiting for!

Volunteer your time to speak to students at some of our partner schools, and be the start of their digital career journey.

Microsoft Connector has countless schools eagerly waiting for volunteers like you!

Join our mission to inform young people about their options and create effective and efficient routes into digital training and employment.

Inspire the next generation through mentoring, by assisting talent in achieving their career aspirations in the digital sector.

Use your expertise to shape the next generation of budding talent
